 - i) be advised by the Secretary in writing as to their unfinancial status and this Rule; and
 - ii) failing the receipt by the Association of the outstanding amounts due and owing from the Member within a further 21 days of notice being provided pursuant to Sub-rule (c)(i), the Member will cease to be a Member of the Association and their name will be purged from the Membership Register.

10. RESIGNATION OF MEMBERSHIP

- a) A Member of the Association may resign from membership by notice in writing to the Secretary of the Association.
- b) A notice of resignation from membership of the Association takes effect:
 - i) where a Member ceases to be eligible to become a Member of the Association:
 - (1) on the day on which the notice is received by the Association; or
 - (2) on the day specified in the notice, which is a day not earlier than the day when the Member ceases to be eligible to become a Member,whichever is the later; or
 - ii) in any other case:
 - (1) on the day on which the notice is received by the Association; or
 - (2) on the day specified in the notice;whichever is later.
- c) Any dues payable but not paid by a former Member of the Association, in relation to a period before the Member's resignation from the Association took effect, may be sued for and recovered in the name of the Association in a court of competent jurisdiction, as a debt due to the Association.
- d) A notice delivered to the person mentioned in subsection (a) will be taken to have been received by the Association when it was delivered.
- e) A notice of resignation that has been received by the Association is not invalid because it was not addressed and delivered in accordance with subsection (a).
- f) A resignation from membership of the Association is valid even if it is not effected in accordance with this section if the Member is informed in writing by or on behalf of the Association that the resignation has been accepted.

11. EXPULSION FROM MEMBERSHIP

A Member may be expelled from the Association by resolution of the Committee of Management called on not less than 21 days' notice for the purpose of considering such resolution provided that:

- a) the Member sought to be expelled is provided by the proposer of the motion with particulars of the grounds relied upon and is afforded a reasonable opportunity to be heard in answer to what is alleged, before the meeting votes on the motion;
- b) no Member will be expelled unless the Member has been found guilty, under these Rules, of having misappropriated funds of the Association, or substantially breaching these Rules or of gross misbehaviour.

12. CESSATION OF MEMBERSHIP

- a) Notwithstanding any provisions elsewhere in these Rules, a Member will cease to be a Member when any of the following occur:
 - i) the Member resigns;
 - ii) the Member dies;
 - iii) the Member is expelled from membership pursuant to these Rules;
 - iv) when the Member becomes ineligible for membership.
- b) So there can be no doubt a person, who was a Member, will cease to have any privileges of membership immediately upon the cessation of their membership but will remain indebted to the Association for any dues payable but not paid in relation to a period before the cessation of membership and which may be sued by the Association as a debt due to the Association.
- c) A Member becomes ineligible for membership of the Association when they no longer meet the conditions of eligibility for membership of the Association.
- d) A Member who becomes ineligible for membership of the Association will within 7 days of the ineligibility for membership give written notice of the ineligibility and the reason for the ineligibility to the Secretary.
- e) A notice delivered to the Secretary will be taken to have been received by the Association when it was delivered.
- f) Where practicable, the Secretary will promptly notify each person whose membership ceases pursuant to rule 12a)iv), of the cessation of their membership stating the effective date of the cessation of membership and the reason for the cessation of membership. The notification will be made by certified mail addressed to the last known address as shown in the register.

13. JOINING FEE

- a) The Committee of Management may, from time to time, determine to charge an entrance fee to new Members of the Association and/or to Members who rejoin the Association.
- b) An entrance fee payable, if any, by an applicant for membership will not be in excess of the Annual Subscription rate.

14. SUBSCRIPTIONS

- a) The annual subscription will be due and payable 12 months in advance on 01 July each year, or by equal periodical payments reflecting periods, which will not be less than the annual subscription divided by the number of pay periods in the applicable year, and which may be deducted from the Member's pay by means of automatic payroll deduction, bank account deduction facility, credit card facility or such other similar means as the Committee of Management may from time to time approve.
- b) Any Member paying subscriptions by equal periodical payment as provided by sub-rule (a) will, subject to Rule 13(a), be for all purposes treated as financial for a period of a further 3 months beyond the receipt of the last instalment paid by the Member or on their behalf.
- c) A Member's subscription will be due and payable from the date their application for membership is received, provided that in the event that an applicant for membership is not accepted any subscription received will be repaid.
- d) Prior to 31 May of each year the Committee of Management will determine any changes to the subscriptions payable by the different types of Members for the 12 month period commencing the following July.

- e) The Committee of Management may, from time to time, resolve to provide a discount for annual subscription in such circumstances as they consider appropriate.
- f) A Member who resigns from membership of the Association may be refunded any subscriptions paid in advance to the Association.

14A. LIFE MEMBERSHIP

- a) There will be a maximum, at any one time, of 25 Life Members admitted to the Association.

 - (ii) held each new financial year,determine how many Life Members will, to the maximum provided by this Rule, be admitted for the financial year concerned.
- c) A person eligible for membership in accordance with these Rules may, subject to this Rule, elect to become a Life Member upon the payment of such Life Membership Fee as the Committee of Management determines from time to time.
- d) A Life Member will not, on payment of the Life Membership Fee, be required again, whilst a Member, pay subscription fees pursuant to Rule 14 or any further Life Membership Fee, but will remain liable for the payment of any levies or fines.
- e) A Life Member will, on the payment of the Life Membership Fee be treated for the purposes of Rule 9 as a financial member unless the Life Member fails to pay any levy or fine payable in accordance with these Rules.
- f) A person who is a Life Member continues as a Life Member for such period as the person remains eligible for membership of the Association and has not resigned or whose membership has not otherwise ceased in accordance with these Rules.
- g) When any Life Member ceases to be a Life Member in accordance with this Rule, the Committee of Management may, despite Rule 14A(b), determine to admit a further member as a Life Member during the financial year concerned.

14B. ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP

- a) Associate Membership is available to any person that is not eligible for membership, and:
 - (i) has previously been a member of VIPA; or
 - (ii) is engaged or employed in a cadet type program for any of the employers listed in rule 5(a); and
 - (iii) has been nominated by an Executive Member and approved by the Committee of Management.
- b) An Associate Member will be eligible to receive access to all benefits available to VIPA members, including access to the VIPA Loss of Licence Protection product subject to the following caveat. The extent to which these benefits are extended to an Associate Member will be such that, any cost to VIPA beyond that of the Associate Members annual subscription, will be borne by the member. This caveat may be waived at the discretion of the Committee of Management.
- c) An Associate Member of the Association will not be entitled to any voting rights whatsoever in accordance with these Rules, nor to hold any office or position whatsoever in accordance with these Rules.

15. LEVIES

- a) The Committee of Management may only impose a levy on Members if a special majority approves the levy.
- b) A levy payable by a Member will not be in excess of their annual subscription rate.

16. WAIVER

- a) The Committee of Management may in special circumstances, of which circumstances the Committee of Management will be the sole judge, waive the whole or any portion of levies, fines and subscriptions payable by a Member and on such Member and the Secretary being informed in writing by the Committee of Management that the whole or any portion of levies, fines or subscription payable by him or her have been waived by the Committee the amount so waived will be deemed to be not payable and the Member will, during such period to which the waiver applies, be deemed to be financial.

17. LOANS GRANTS AND DONATIONS

A loan, grant or donation of an amount exceeding $1000.00 will not be made by the Association unless the Committee of Management has:

- a) satisfied itself that the making of the loan, grant or donation would be in accordance with the other Rules of the Association; and
- b) satisfied itself in relation to a loan - that, in the circumstances, the security proposed to be given for the repayment of the loan is adequate and the proposed arrangements for the repayment of the loan are satisfactory; and
- c) approved the making of the loan, grant or donation.

18. BENEFIT SCHEMES

The Association may, either by itself or in cooperation with or through the agency of other bodies provide for its Members such benefit and welfare schemes as the Committee of Management will from time to time determine and all Members will have the right to participate in any such scheme and will be advised of the benefits and conditions attaching to participation.

19. FUNDS AND PROPERTY

- a) A General Fund will be established for the purposes of achieving the objects of the Association and all real and personal property whatsoever belonging to the Association will comprise the General Fund.
- b) So there can be no doubt the General Fund will include the bank accounts of the Association.
- c) Any Member or employee of the Association receiving monies on behalf of the Association will deposit the monies without any deduction in the bank accounts of the Association.
- d) The name of any bank account will include "VIPA".
- e) All monies will be deposited after receipt and a receipt will be obtained for each deposit.
- f) When not presently required for carrying out any object of the Association, the property may be held in such form or forms as may be decided from time to time by the Committee of Management and will be registered, deposited or invested wherever possible under the law relating to such property in the name of the Association.
- g) Any Association property or funds held by any Executive Member or Member whether expressed to be held in the name of the Association or not, will be held on trust by that person for and on behalf of the Association.

21C. DISCLOSURE OF OFFICER'S RELEVANT REMUNERATION AND NON-CASH BENEFITS

- h) Officer Bearers and/or Members will account for such property and funds to the Association in accordance with the rules and/or law, provided that upon a demand being made by the President, Vice President or the Secretary upon any Executive Member or Member holding such property or monies to deliver up such property or monies to the Association, the Executive Member or Member will comply with such demand forthwith.
- i) The General Fund of the Association will only be expended for the purpose of achieving the objects of the Association and will be disbursed by direct debit facility or cheque signed by the President and/or Treasurer and/or one other Executive Member.

- i) A voter may vote for only the number of candidates that is not more than the number of offices of the same type to be elected at the same time.
- v) How Manager must deal with voting material
- i) The Manager of the election must put all voting material returned to the Manager in the ballot box until voting has ended.
 - ii) If, after the finishing day for the election, the Manager receives a return envelope apparently containing a ballot paper for the election, the Manager must—
 - (1) keep the envelope sealed; and
 - (2) mark the envelope 'Received by the Manager after the finishing day for the ballot'; and
 - (3) keep the envelope in safe custody, but separately from return envelopes received before or on the finishing day.
- w) Scrutineers—appointment
- i) A candidate may—
 - (1) act personally as a scrutineer; or
 - (2) appoint another person (an "appointee") as a scrutineer for the candidate.
 - ii) An appointment must be in writing and signed by the candidate.
 - iii) A candidate must notify the Manager of the election of the name of the candidate's appointee as soon as possible after the appointee is appointed.
 - iv) The Manager may refuse to allow an appointee to act as a scrutineer if—
 - (1) the Manager asks to inspect the appointment as a scrutineer; and

- (2) the appointee does not produce it.
- x) Scrutineers' rights
Subject to Sub-Rule (y) a scrutineer may be present when—
- i) ballot papers or other voting material for a ballot are prepared and given to voters; and
 - ii) voting material is received and put in safe custody under Sub-Rule (v); and
 - iii) votes are counted.
- y) Scrutineers--numbers attending
- i) Each candidate may have only 1 scrutineer exercising a right under Sub-Rule (x) for each official present where the ballot is being conducted.
 - ii) In Sub-Rule (y)(i)—
"official" means—
 - (1) if the ballot is being conducted by the Australian Electoral Commission—an electoral officer; or
 - (2) if the ballot is not being conducted by the Australian Electoral Commission—
 - A. the Manager of the election; or
 - B. any other person appointed by the Manager to exercise the Manager's powers for the election.
- z) Initial scrutiny of voting material
- i) As soon as possible after the ballot finishes, the Manager of the ballot must—
 - (1) seal the ballot box in a way that prevents voting material from being put in it; and
 - (2) take the ballot box to the place where votes are to be counted.
 - ii) The Manager must then—
 - (1) unseal the ballot box; and
 - (2) take out the return envelopes; and
 - (3) open each return envelope and take out the declaration envelope; and
 - (4) remove the flap or label containing the declaration from the declaration envelope, examine the declaration and mark off the voter's name on the roll; and
 - (5) check the ballot number on the declaration against the ballot number marked against the voter's name on the roll; and
 - (6) ensure the declaration is signed.
 - iii) After complying with Sub-Rule (z)(ii), the Manager must put the declaration envelopes in a container and the 'torn-off' declarations into another container if satisfied—
 - (1) each declaration is signed; and
 - (2) the ballot number on each declaration corresponds with the ballot number marked beside the voter's name on the roll.
 - iv) However, the Manager must not put a declaration envelope or declaration in the containers mentioned in Sub-Rule (z)(iii) if—
 - (1) the Manager reasonably believes the voter to whom it was sent did not sign the declaration; or
 - (2) the person named on the declaration is not the person to whom it was sent.

39. NOMINATION AND ELECTION OF COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT

- v) Sub-Rule (z)(iv) does not apply if the Manager is satisfied the person who filled in and signed the declaration—
 - (1) is a voter; and
 - (2) has not previously voted in the ballot; and
 - (3) has a reasonable explanation for using someone else's ballot material.
- vi) The Manager must keep declaration envelopes and declarations excluded under Sub-Rule (z)(iv) separate from other declaration envelopes and declarations.
- vii) A declaration is valid only if—
 - (1) it complies with Sub-Rule (z)(iii)(1) and (2); and
 - (2) Sub-Rule (z)(iv) does not apply.
- viii) A valid declaration must be accepted as valid, and an invalid declaration must be rejected, by the Manager.
- ix) If a declaration is accepted as valid by the Manager the Manager must—
 - (1) note the acceptance of validity on the declaration; and
 - (2) record the correct ballot number on the roll against the name of the voter who signed the declaration.
- x) After separating the declaration envelopes and declarations, the Manager must, in the following order—
 - (1) seal the container holding declarations;
 - (2) open the declaration envelopes not excluded under Sub-Rule (z)(iv) and take out the ballot papers;
 - (3) if a declaration envelope contains more than 1 ballot paper for each office the election is for, mark each of the ballot papers from the envelope 'informal under Sub-Rule (aa)(ii)(5)';
 - (4) put all of the ballot papers in the ballot box.
- aa) Counting votes
 - i) To count votes the Manager of the election must—
 - (1) admit the formal votes and reject the informal votes; and
 - (2) count the formal votes, and record the number for each candidate; and
 - (3) count the informal votes.
 - ii) A vote is informal only if—
 - (1) the ballot paper is not initialled by the Manager and the Manager is not satisfied the paper is authentic; or
 - (2) the ballot paper is marked in a way that allows the voter to be identified; or
 - (3) the ballot paper is not marked in a way that makes it clear how the voter meant to vote; or
 - (4) the ballot paper does not comply with a direction given under Sub-Rule (p)(i)(4); or
 - (5) the ballot paper was taken from a ballot envelope that contained another ballot paper for the office the election is for.
- bb) Scrutineers' objections
 - i) Before votes are counted, a scrutineer may advise the Manager that the scrutineer considers an error has been made in conducting the ballot.

40. NOMINATION AND ELECTION OF EXECUTIVE MEMBERS

- ii) When votes are counted, a scrutineer may—
 - (1) object to a ballot paper being admitted as formal or rejected as informal by the Manager of the election; or
 - (2) advise the Manager of the election that the scrutineer considers an error has been made in conducting the ballot or counting votes.
- iii) If a scrutineer advises the Manager under Sub-Rule (bb)(i) or (bb)(ii)(2), the Manager must—
 - (1) decide whether the error has been made; and
 - (2) if appropriate--direct action to correct or mitigate the error.
- iv) If a scrutineer objects under Sub-Rule (bb)(ii)(1), the Manager must--
 - (1) decide whether the ballot paper is to be admitted or rejected; and
 - (2) note the decision on the ballot paper and initial the note.
- cc) Direction by Manager to leave count
The Manager of the election may direct a person to leave the place where votes are being counted if the person—
 - i) does not have the right to be present at the count; or
 - ii) interrupts the count, other than to exercise a scrutineer's right.
- dd) How result is decided
 - i) The method of deciding the result of a ballot is by a first-past-the post system.
 - ii) That number of candidates corresponding with the number of offices to be filled who have the most formal votes are elected.
 - iii) This Rule is subject to Sub-Rule (ee).
- ee) What happens if votes for 2 or more candidates are equal
 - i) If the Manager can not decide which candidate is elected to an office because the votes cast for 2 or more candidates are equal, the Manager of the election must decide which candidate is elected by drawing lots.
 - ii) A decision under Sub-Rule (ee)(i) must be made in the presence of any scrutineer who wishes to attend.

40. NOMINATION AND ELECTION OF EXECUTIVE MEMBERS

- a) The Executive Members will be elected by a Collegiate Electoral System.
- b) The Electoral College will be the Committee of Management.
- c) The outgoing Secretary will appoint, in accordance with the Act, a Manager of the election (for the purposes of these Rules “the Manager”) who is not the holder of any office in, a Member of the Committee of Management or an employee of the Association.
- d) Nominations will be in writing, signed by the candidate and seconded by another member of the Electoral College and will be delivered to the Manager prior to the commencement of the first meeting of the Committee of Management next following the election of Members of the Committee of Management (for the purposes of this Rule “the Meeting”).
- e) If the Manager finds that a nomination is defective, the Manager will, before rejecting the nomination, notify the person concerned of the defect and, where it is practicable to do so, give the person the opportunity of remedying the defect.
- f) The Manager will notify each member of the Electoral College of the opening and closing time of the ballot which will be conducted at the Meeting.

41. TERM OF OFFICE

- g) If at the close of nominations, only the required number of nominations have been received for the offices, the Manager will declare such candidates as elected.
- h) If there are more than the required number of candidates for office, the Manager will conduct, at the Meeting, an election by secret ballot of the members of the Electoral College.
- i) Any candidates may appoint a scrutineer, and the provision of Sub-Rule 39(w) in relation to scrutineers will apply.
- j) The Manager will arrange for the preparation of ballot papers on which the names of the candidates, for each contested office, will appear in alphabetical order.
- k) The Manager will initial and hand to each member of the Electoral College a ballot paper.
- l) Each member of the Electoral College will cast a vote by completing the ballot paper striking out the name of each candidate the voter does not wish to vote for, and by placing the completed ballot paper in the ballot box in the control of the Manager at the Meeting. Each member of Electoral College may vote for only the number of candidates that is not more than the number of offices of the same type to be elected at the same time.
- m) Any member who will not be present at the meeting at which the ballot is to be held may:
 - i) lodge a request with the Manager for an absentee vote, together with an address where such member can receive communications, and, if any member has done so, the Manager will not declare the result of the ballot until such member has been given reasonable opportunity to vote;
 - ii) appoint another member of the Electoral College to vote as their proxy and such appointed member will be entitled to vote in their own right and as proxy, provided, and despite any other Rule to the contrary, that no member of the Electoral College can exercise more than one proxy vote.
- n) The candidate or candidates securing the highest number of votes will be declared elected.
- o) What happens if votes for 2 or more candidates are equal
 - i) If the Manager can not decide which candidate is elected to an office because the votes cast for 2 or more candidates are equal, the Manager of the election must decide which candidate is elected by drawing lots.
 - ii) A decision under Sub-Rule 40(o)(i) must be made in the presence of any scrutineer who wishes to attend.
- p) The Manager will declare the result in writing, as soon as the count is completed, to the Committee of Management.
- q) The candidate, or candidates, elected will take office upon the declaration by the Manager of the result of the election and each will, subject to these Rules, hold office until their successors are elected.

41. TERM OF OFFICE

- a) The ordinary term of office of all Committee Members will be 2 years commencing in 2015. The current term of 1 year will apply for the 2014 elections.
- b) The ordinary term of office of all Executive Members will be 2 years.
- c) Members of the Committee of Management and Executive Members will hold office until their successors are elected in elections held in accordance with these Rules unless they earlier transfer from their pilot base, die, resign, are dismissed from office, or otherwise cease to hold office in accordance with the Act and these Rules.
- d) Nothing in this rule will permit a Member of the Committee of Management or Executive Member from holding office for a period in excess of five years without re-election.

42. CASUAL VACANCY

- a) A casual vacancy will occur in any office of the Association, where the holder of an office dies, resigns, is removed from office, does not take up office or ceases to hold office, in accordance with the Rules.
- b) Casual vacancies will be filled in accordance with this Rule.
- c) Where a casual vacancy occurs, and the unexpired portion of the term of office is more than twelve months, the vacancy will be filled by election in accordance with the relevant election rule of these Rules.
- d) Where a casual vacancy occurs and the unexpired portion of the term of office is less than twelve months the vacancy will be filled as provided for in Sub-Rule (e) and (f).
- e) In the case of a casual vacancy in the office of any Executive Member, the Committee of Management may appoint by resolution or elect an eligible Committee of Management Member to the Office for such unexpired portion of the term;
- f) In the case of a casual vacancy of a Member of the Committee of Management who is not an Executive Member, the Committee of Management may appoint a Member from the electorate, from which the Member of the Committee of Management who held the Office immediately prior to the vacancy occurring was elected.
- g) The successful candidate or appointee will hold office until the next election for the office held in accordance with the relevant election rule of these Rules.

43. VACANCIES IN OFFICE

- a) Should the office of an Executive Member position become vacant, the Committee of Management will temporarily fill such vacancy by appointment by, and from, the Members of the Committee of Management at the next Committee of Management meeting held after such vacancy arises, until an election or appointment can be made pursuant to these Rules on the following basis:
 - i) if the vacancy is in the office of President, the Vice President may serve in that office;
 - ii) if the vacancy is in the office of Secretary, the Treasurer will act in that office;
 - iii) if the vacancy is in the office of Treasurer, the Secretary will act in that office.

44. CESSATION OF OFFICE

- a) If an Executive Member or Member of the Committee of Management ceases to be a financial Member of the Association, then their office will be declared vacant.
- b) An Executive Member may be removed from Office by a decision of the Committee of Management, and a Member of the Committee of Management may be removed, by a decision of a General Meeting provided that:
 - i) the Executive Member or Member of the Committee of Management sought to be removed will be provided by the proposer of the motion seeking their removal with particulars of the grounds to be relied upon for the removal and will be afforded a reasonable opportunity to be heard in answer to what is alleged, before the meeting votes on the motion;
 - ii) no Executive Member or Committee Member will be dismissed unless they have been found guilty, under the rules of the Association, of:
 - (1) misappropriation of funds of the Association; or
 - (2) substantial breach of the Rules of the Association; or
 - (3) gross misbehaviour or gross neglect of duty.

47. CHANGE OF ADDRESS

 - ii) transfer to a separate register the names and particulars of all Members whose membership of the Association has ceased;
 - iii) in each year keep a record of each election that must, under the rules, be held during each year commencing 1 January for an office in the Association;
 - iv) in each year keep a record of members on 31 December in the previous year.
- d) The Secretary will maintain a separate list of the persons holding office in the Association showing each officer's name, residential and postal address, occupation and the name and address of their employer.
- e) In the event that the Association should enter into an agreement under subsection 151(1) of the Act the Secretary will keep a record of the number of members who were, on 31 December in the previous year, ineligible State members within the meaning of section 150 of the Act.
- f) The Register of Members and list of Officers will be kept up to date and will be available for production to, or inspection by, the Returning Officer, the Auditor, any officer holding office under the Rules, any Member so authorised from time to time by the Committee of Management or by the Registrar or any person authorised by the Registrar.

47. CHANGE OF ADDRESS

- a) In the event of a Member changing their:
 - i) place of residence, or
 - ii) employer, or
 - iii) place of employment, or
 - iv) postal address,the Member will notify such change to the Secretary in writing within fourteen days.

48. INSPECTION OF BOOKS

The Register of Members, Minutes of Meetings and the financial records of the Association will, subject to these Rules, be open to personal inspection, at reasonable times, by all Members at the Registered Office of the Association on application in writing to the Secretary on not less than 48 hours' notice.

49. INDUSTRIAL DISPUTES

- a) When a notification of industrial dispute is to be made under the Act, such notification will be authorised by the Committee of Management provided that when it is not practicable to have the Committee of Management convened for the purpose, the President will authorise the notification.
- b) Once such authorisation is given, the notification will be given or filed as required by the Act by the President, Committee Member or employee designated at the time to do so.
- c) Where in the opinion of the President and one third of the Committee of Management a meeting of Members is necessary, the President will take such lawful action as is necessary to call a meeting in accordance with the provisions for General Meetings.

50. INDUSTRIAL REPRESENTATION

- a) Each Member authorises the Association to act as their agent in dealings with their employer and to enter into binding legal agreements on their behalf in respect of their employment provided that:
 - i) such agreements are collective industrial agreements entered into in good faith for the benefit of the Members concerned; and
 - ii) the terms of any agreement have been approved by the Members.
- b) In agreements made pursuant to Sub-rule (a) the Association may act as both party principal and as agent on behalf of its Members.
- c) The Committee of Management will appoint the representatives of the Association for the conduct of negotiations.

51. EXECUTION OF DOCUMENTS

The President will be authorised to execute on behalf of the Association, contracts of employment for Association staff, collective industrial agreements and all other documents or instruments.

52. INDEMNITY

- a) All Executive Members, Committee Members and employees will be indemnified by the Association, to the extent only of its assets, from all losses and expenses incurred by them in or about the discharge of their respective duties, except such as occur through their own wilful default.
- b) No Executive Member, Committee Member or employee will be liable for any other Executive Member, Committee Member or employee or for any loss or expense sustained by the Association, unless such loss or expense occurs through their own wilful default.

53. COMMON SEAL

- a) There will be a common seal of the Association which will contain the words:
"Common Seal - VIPA"
- b) The common seal of the Association will be affixed to any document requiring a common seal, which will include any collective industrial agreement.
- c) The President will be authorised to affix the seal of the Association to any document.

54. INTERPRETATION OF RULES

- a) The Rules of the Association will be construed liberally and so as to facilitate the functioning of the Association in accordance with the requirements of all applicable legislation of the States and of the Commonwealth of Australia.

57. REFERENDA

- b) The President will be empowered in case of dispute to rule upon the interpretation of these Rules and in any case where the Association Rules are silent upon a question of procedure will be, subject to these Rules, responsible for directing the course to be taken.
- c) Should any question arise at any time on a matter which is not fully provided for by these Rules the Committee of Management will determine the question, providing that pending such determination the President will rule upon the question and such ruling will be binding until such determination is given.

55. DISSOLUTION OF THE ASSOCIATION

- a) The Association may at any time be dissolved by resolution of the Members of the Association provided that, a majority of membership vote on such resolution and that of those Members voting a majority vote in favour of such resolution.
- b) Voting on a dissolution resolution will be by secret postal ballot and the minimum elapsed time from ballot initiation to ballot closure will be 42 days.
- c) In the event that the Members of the Association vote for dissolution of the Association, the Committee of Management is to make an application for cancellation of registration of the Association pursuant to regulation 30 of the RAO Schedule prior to dissolution of the Association being effected.
- d) Upon the dissolution of the Association, its assets shall be realised, and the debts and liabilities of the Association shall be satisfied and subject to the debts being satisfied, the assets shall be divided among Members existing at the date of dissolution in proportion to the amount of subscriptions, contributions and levies paid by them during the preceding 12 months.

56. ALTERATIONS TO RULES

- a) The Rules of the Association will not be altered except by resolution of the Committee of Management, and no alteration to the Rules of the Association will be effective unless agreed to by a special majority.

57. REFERENDA

- a) A referendum will be carried out, if required by a resolution of the Committee of Management or of a General Meeting of Members, to determine issues.
- b) In addition to paragraph (a) a referendum will be held upon receipt of a requisition signed by 15% of the Members raising an issue for determination, in accordance with the following:
 - i) the requisition will be forwarded to the Secretary; and
 - ii) within 45 days of receipt by the Secretary of the requisition the Committee of Management will, by resolution, frame a question for the referendum.
- c) The referendum will be conducted by the Returning Officer in the following manner:
 - i) The referendum will be a secret ballot;
 - ii) The referendum will be commenced by the posting of ballot papers to each Member's home address within 100 days of the date of resolution referred to in Sub-Rule (a) or Sub-Rule (b)(ii);
 - iii) The ballot papers will include voting instructions and two envelopes to be used as follows:
 - (1) the completed ballot paper to be placed inside the small envelope which has no marking on it;
 - (2) the small envelope to be placed inside another envelope bearing the Member's name and address or identification number on the back, which is to be returned to the Returning Officer;
 - (3) the Returning Officer should use the addressed or numbered envelope to ensure that there are no irregularities in the voting;

58. RULES OF DEBATE

- (4) the closing date of a referendum should be at least 28 days after the date of posting of the ballot papers;
- (5) it is competent for the Returning Officer to appoint an Acting Returning Officer or Officers as required to assist in conducting a referendum;
- (6) at the counting of the ballot there should be 2 scrutineers;
- (7) it is the Returning Officer's responsibility alone to determine informal votes;
- (8) the result of the referendum will be determined by a majority of the votes cast and will be binding upon all Members of the Association and the Committee of Management.

58. RULES OF DEBATE

- a) These Rules of Debate will apply to Committee of Management meetings and General Meetings.
- b) All business will proceed by way of motion which will be affirmative in character.
- c) All motions and amendments will be placed in writing when directed by the Chairperson.
- d) The right of speaking on any subject will belong to the Member who first raises their hand.
- e) In moving a motion a Member will explain their proposal as briefly as possible.
- f) A motion or amendment not seconded will lapse.
- g) A seconder of a motion may reserve their right to speak later.
- h) A Member will not speak more than once to a motion or amendment except the mover of the original motion will have the right to reply.
- i) No further discussion is allowed after the mover has replied.
- j) A motion may be amended by leaving out substituting or adding words but an amendment will not be accepted by the Chairperson which is a direct negative to a motion or which does not preserve the substance of a motion.
- k) Any number of amendments may be proposed and discussed simultaneously with the original motion.
- l) Amendments will be put to the vote in the order in which they are received.
- m) A motion may be superseded at any time by another motion "that the current motion be discharged from the agenda".
- n) The time of discussion for each motion will be limited to one hour and a Member will not be allowed more than five minutes to speak to a motion or amendment unless with the concurrence of the meeting.
- o) No more than two Members will speak in succession on one side either for or against a motion and if at the conclusion of the second speaker's remarks no Member speaks on the other side the motion or amendment will be put to the meeting after the mover has replied.
- p) A Member when speaking will not be interrupted unless called to order when the Member calling to order will be heard in support of the point of order, provided that the Chairperson may at that stage decide the point of order or hear future discussion but such point of order will be decided before the debate is resumed.
- q) Immediately the debate on any motion is concluded the question will be resolved by voting.
- r) In the event of the voting on any question being equal the Chairperson will declare the motion lost.
- s) A motion for the adjournment of a motion or a meeting to any stated day or time may be moved at any time and if carried such resolution will not in any way be abrogated.
- t) A motion to rescind a resolution cannot be moved unless notice was given at the previous meeting.

60. COPY OF THE RULES

- u) Where the Rules of Debate are silent the Chairperson will make the ruling but a Member who is dissatisfied with the ruling by the Chairperson may move a motion “that the ruling by the Chairperson be dissented from” and the Chairperson will then invite a Vice President to preside or call for nominations from the floor for a Temporary Chairperson and only the mover will be permitted to speak except that the Chairperson may state the reason for their ruling. The Chairperson will resume the chair when the vote has been taken.

59. BY-LAWS

- a) The Committee of Management may, from time to time, by a majority determine to make, and make, By-laws to facilitate the governance of the Association.
- b) Any By-laws made must be consistent with these Rules and must not concern any matters that are required by the Act to be consented to by the Fair Work Commission or certified by the Industrial Registrar.
- c) Any By-laws made must be notified to the Members and will not be binding until 14 days has elapsed following notification, provided that notice of by-laws having been made, may be given by means of publication on the Association’s web site or in the Association’s journal.
- d) The Secretary will cause to be kept a register of By-laws which provides the date which a by-law was made, the resolution of the Committee of Management making the by-law, and the date on which notice was given.

60. COPY OF THE RULES

- a) Each Member, who is financial within the meaning of these Rules, will be entitled upon request to receive free of charge a copy of these Rules and if a further copy is required a Member, who is financial within the meaning of these Rules, may obtain the copy on application to the Secretary and on payment of 10 dollars or such other reasonable sum as may be set from time to time by the Committee of Management.
